BWH was named one the Best Places to Work for Postdocs for 2012 in The Scientist magazine. BWH was the only Boston-area institute to appear in the top 20. Results will be published in the April 2012 issue. Thank you to the Postdoc community for voting in the survey!

Underrepresented minority faculty and trainees at Brigham and Women’s Hospital are invited to submit their accomplishments of the last year to the new publication of the Office for Multicultural Faculty Careers Achievement Book. Each faculty member or trainee will receive a dedicated space in this publication by alphabetical order. We have streamlined the submission process for the achievement book to utilize an online form. The deadline for submissions is Friday, June 15 but early submissions are encouraged. Please click here to reach the online application.

Participants of the Brigham Leadership Program Cohort IV will present their final projects on May 24 in the Bornstein Auditorium from 3:00 – 6:00pm. Sponsors and BLP alumni are encouraged to attend. For more information, please contact us at BLBWH@partners.org.

The Biomedical Research Institute’s BRight Futures Fund wants to know: do you have a “grand problem” you want to solve or see solved or a “provocative question” which, if answered, would have an impact on medicine? These questions/problems will be used to shape a spring 2012 RFA for a $100,000 BRight Futures Fund Award. A $500 prize will be given to the people whose questions are selected for the RFA. Click here to submit as many questions as you’d like.

Harvard Medical School has named Dr. Phillip M. Boiselle as Associate Dean for Academic and Clinical Affairs. Dr. Boiselle is a Professor of Radiology at Harvard Medical School and a faculty member in the Department of Radiology at BIDMC.

New On Our Website

The new 2012 BWH Faculty Resource Guide is now available online!
The Faculty Resource Guide is intended to help faculty connect with the many different centers, offices and organizations serving the Brigham and Women’s Hospital community. Hard copies will soon also be available, and all new faculty will receive a copy of the guide at their office locations. Guides will also be available at our New Faculty Welcome Lunch in July.

Updates will be made continuously throughout the year to the online version. If you would like to add or update a resource or have any questions, please contact the CFDD at BWHCFDD@partners.org.
