

Brigham & Women's Hospital
Newborn Medicine CWN 6
75 Francis St.
Boston, Massachusetts 02115

October 23, 2007

Brigham & Women's Hospital
Newborn Intensive Care Unit

presents:

2nd Neonatal Respiratory Symposium

A COLLABORATIVE CONFERENCE
Tuesday, October 23, 2007

In conjunction with

Brigham & Women's Hospital
Neonatal Respiratory Care Department

Special Guest Speaker:

Dr. Jeffrey R. Fineman, MD

Professor of Pediatrics

Investigator, Cardiovascular Research Institute

University of California, San Francisco

sponsored by an unrestricted educational grant from INO Therapeutics

Course Co-Directors

Christine W. Pantano RRT, NPS
Clinical Supervisor, Neonatal Respiratory Care

Robert M. Insoft MD, FAAP
Medical Director, NICU & Neonatal
Respiratory Care

Dr. Fineman will be speaking on the following:

Lunch Program:

12:30pm-2pm: BNP in Neonatal Congenital

Heart Disease

Location: NICU Solarium, CWN-6
Brigham & Women's Hospital,
75 Francis Street, Boston

Dinner Program:

6pm-9pm: Endothelial Dysfunction in Pediatric Pulmonary
Hypertension: Therapeutic Implications

Location: Maggiano's Little Italy Restaurant
4 Columbus Avenue (Park Sq.), Boston
Complimentary Dinner
Parking available on site, fee to park

Accreditation

CEU credits have been applied for respiratory therapists, physicians & nursing

Additional Information

For additional information on these programs, please contact:

Christine Pantano 617.732.5427

Dr. Robert Insoft 617.732.7739

Registration

Space Is Limited for both programs.

Early Registration Is Encouraged.

RSVP by October 9, 2007 to Anne M. Welch, Newborn Medicine

By Fax: 617-232-3675

Or E-mail: amwelch@partners.org

Name _____

Address _____

Degree/Credentials _____

Daytime Phone (____) _____ Fax (____) _____

Institution _____ E-mail _____

Specialty/Area of Interest _____

Date _____ Signature _____