

CCI Certificate Policy

Participants of courses sponsored by the Center for Clinical Investigation will receive a certificate of attendance only upon completion of a program in its entirety. If any section of the training is missed, participants are welcome to make up that section when the course is offered again. Once all mandatory sections have been completed, a certificate will be issued.