Upcoming Events

HMS/HSDM PDO Movie Night - 1/29

7:00 pm, Cannon Rm., Building C, HMS. This month's featured film is "The Dark Knight" Grab a labmate, friend, or date and join us for the movie, freshly-popped popcorn and beverages.

Productive Meetings Workshop – 2/9

Want to spend less time in frustrating meetings? Most business leaders, including investors, assess managerial ability on how well people manage meetings - so your ability to run an effective meeting is essential to your success. In this interactive, participatory 3-hour workshop you will learn new ways to conduct your meetings using "formulas" or tools that make them naturally more effective and efficient. Women Entrepreneurs in Science and Technology (WEST) thanks the Broad Institute for their sponsorship and support of this event.

Questionable Chemistry: Hot Moments on the Job - 3/3

The CFDD invites you to a performance of interactive theater presented by Harvard University's Bok Center Players. The scenario: Your boss is swamped. Tension is mounting between your colleagues. Your work may be compromised, but is it your mess to clean up? How do you handle complex interpersonal dynamics? Actors from the Bok Center Players will present a short skit followed by a facilitated discussion. Join us for an engaging approach to developing new strategies for dealing with interpersonal conflict. This performance is geared toward postdocs, fellows and residents, however, ALL interested parties are welcome and encouraged to attend. Contact: BWHOPRC@partners.org

Reaction Gone Wrong: Managing Conflict in the Workplace - 3/4

The CFDD invites you to a performance of interactive theater presented by Harvard University's Bok Center Players. The scenario: Tensions have mounted. You are in charge. Your own workload is barely under control, but your team need guidance. How do you effectively manage clashing styles at work? How do you honor your own leadership style while managing the complexities in your group? How do you get your own work done while leading and mentoring others? No one ever told you that running a lab or being a doctor meant most of your time would be spent managing people. How do you prioritize your science or practice? Actors from the Bok Center Players will present a short skit followed by a facilitated discussion. Join us for an engaging approach to developing new strategies for managing conflict in your workplace. This performance is geared toward faculty however, ALL interested parties are welcome and encouraged to attend. Contact: BWHOPRC@partners.org

Announcements

CVDM Human Tissue Repository - Project receives BRI award

We are excited to inform the community that the BRI Cardiovascular, Diabetes and Metabolic Disorders Research Center received one of the three BRI center and program awards. The CVDM Human Tissue Repository, directed by Richard Mitchell, MD, PhD, will be partially funded by this award. We would like to congratulate the members of our community that participated in this process and look forward to updating the community on the status of the CVDM Human Tissue Repository as it evolves. For additional information about the BRI Cardiovascular, Diabetes and Metabolic Disorders Research Center, please visit the center's pages on the BWH Research Intranet and the BWH Research Web site.
