

RESEARCH CONNECTION

OPRC Spotlight

 From the Office for Postdoctoral and Research Careers,
Center for Faculty Development and Diversity

Wednesday, September 16, 2009

Upcoming Events

Harvard Neighbors' Fall Open House - 9/16

Harvard Neighbors offers social outings and events for families of Harvard Faculty, Staff and Affiliates who are new to Boston and the US.

Research Connection Live Lunch 2009-2010 Kickoff - 9/21

Join the Biomedical Research Institute, the Center for Clinical Investigation, the Center for Faculty Development & Diversity, and Research Administration to hear about the New Postdoc Policy from Dr. Barbara Bierer, Sr. VP, Research and about the RC Live Lunch series and an overview of resources from Jacqueline Slavik, PhD, BRI Executive Director.

Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Finding and Hiring a Nanny - 10/1

Tips for successfully negotiating the complicated and emotional process of hiring a nanny will be discussed. Handouts on everything from interviewing, reference checking and performance evaluation will be given to each participant. Brown-bag lunch. Co-sponsored by BWH Office for Women's Careers and the HMS Office of Work and Family. Contact: OWC@partners.org.

A Woman's Money, A Woman's Future- 10/6

This workshop focuses on key aspects of managing one's finances while incorporating issues that are of particular interest to women. This seminar covers evaluating your financial health, setting financial goals, making your money work for you, your plan (putting it all together). Co-sponsored by BWH Office for Women's Careers and the BWPO. Contact: OWC@partners.org.

Upcoming Events Flyer from the BWH Center for Faculty Development and Diversity - September 2009 Calendar

Announcements

Grant Central from Harvard Catalyst

Helps you write the grant and get back to the science!

NIH Helps Advance Research Careers through Loan Repayment Programs - new application cycle opened 9/1

Over two years, programs offer to pay up to $70,000 of Scientists' Educational Debt.

The HGWISE Graduate Mentoring Program Seeks Mentors – apply by 9/21

Harvard Graduate Women in Science and Engineering (HGWISE) is a graduate student organization dedicated to promoting the academic, professional, and personal development of women in science, mathematics, and engineering. HGWISE will pair each female faculty member with one or a small group of female graduate students, who will then meet at least once per month (3-4 times per semester). Please complete the online application. Contact: Eun Young Choi.

Did You Know?

Your Role in Improving Postdoc Life at BWH

The OPRC wants to know what we can do to improve Postdoc life at BWH - and we need your help. You can contact us or send us feedback, comments and suggestions anytime through several methods; 1) email us for a reply, 2) comment anonymously to the OPRC Helpbox, or 3) complete our Entrance, Annual and Exit Surveys.

If You Missed It...

Celebrate Women in Medicine Month - 9/17

National Postdoc Appreciation Day Pizza Party - 9/24

HMS Foundation Funds - deadline 10/6

New Postdoc Policy Town Hall Meeting- 10/15

BRI Research Excellence Awards Fall Poster Session - 11/11

Contact Us

Caroline Rotondi, Admin. Director, OPRC, CFDD

BWHOPRC@partners.org or (617) 525-9323

<http://bwhbri.partners.org/oprc/>

