Association of Multicultural Members of Partners

Annual Scholarship

The Association of Multicultural Members of Partners (AMMP) is a volunteer organization open to all Partners employees who are committed to the recruitment, retention, development, and advancement of under-represented employees into leadership roles throughout the Partners organization.

Purpose of AMMP Scholarship

The AMMP scholarship is one way to promote the mission of AMMP. The purpose of the scholarship is to expand access to career opportunities at Partners HealthCare System, Inc (BWH, Dana-Farber, Faulkner) by assisting under-represented non-professional staff members in obtaining a professional certificate, associates or baccalaureate degrees.

Important Timelines

BWH AMMP scholarship applications are accepted year round. AMMP will award educational scholarships in the amount of $1,000 to individuals who satisfy the established AMMP eligibility criteria. To apply for Fall 2018 awards, please submit application by August 8, 2018.

Eligibility Criteria

To be considered for the AMMP Scholarship, applicants must meet the following eligibility guidelines. The applicant must be:
